

any further commission of trust to the gallant and cient officer. He had a statement, showing the per

From this, it appeared that those who had received one wound composed 35 per cent; two wounds, 26 per cent; three wounds, 9 per cent; five wounds, 11 per cent.

the positions in towns would probably fall to their lot, while the gentlemen of the regular Army would have to take the field.

long as their disabilities did not unfit them for a reasonable share of profitable duty, they sh tone of his colleague's remarks, and was earnestly in favor of retaining each act of Nationalization this year.

provided for the difficulty, as, in addition to the regular regiments of the Veteran Reserve Corps.

regiments to be removed from time to time from unhealthy and dangerous positions to healthy posiofficers and men not in that organization. He thought the section should be amended so as to open the door other, a few more from a third and an officer from a fourth. Referring to the officers of the Regular Army, he been there. Of the 1,000 field and company officers 1,000 were graduates of the Military Academy.

peal made to the House by the chairman of the Commission on Military Affairs, and unchanged by the extraordinary ceived an answer long ago from writers and from me practical experience. Some time ago the military aut retention in the army.

amendment to strike out of the section the clause in reference to the Veteran Reserve Corps.

Farnsworth, Fiske, Glassbrenner, Goodyear, Harding, Hubbell (N. Y.), Jencks, Marshall, Marvin, McCulloch, Myers, Nichols, Phelps, Ritter Rogers, Shaplin, T.

Hubbard (West Virginia), Hulbard, James M. Humphreys, Ingersoll, Julian, Kelley, Ketchum, Kaykendall, Loan, L.

Windom and Woodbridge—84.

A number of amendments were offered to it and all were adopted.

The vote on Mr. Chanler's proposition was taken yeas and nays, and resulted: Yeas, 23; Nays, 85. So

Mr. KETCHAM (N. Y.) presented a memorial from C

On motion of Mr. CONKLING (N. Y.), the evening ses-of it in The Globe, which prompted him to state the House. That paragraph seemed to him to do great justice to the gentleman from Rhode Island. Various in-the wants and ability of Mr. Jenckes. He had stated to the reporter of The Times the fact of the case. He ling's feelings, or prejudiced him in the community, made him the public disavowal of it, and tendered him dition, and he desired to say now, that he would not consider himself called upon to make any explanation on did at 4 1/2 o'clock. _____

and a White Man and Woman Merit and step-mother were mortally wounded. One was